Drawing: Upon arriving at the event, the customer will be given his/her tickets and will put them into the hopper themselves. When it is time for the drawing, we will have two separate drawings of 6 people; Group A & B.

Group A: In the first drawing, 6 tickets will be pulled from the hopper. Each of the 6 contestants will be lined up in the order their name was drawn, from 1 to 6. No customer may have 2 of the 6 chances in the Group A Drawing. If a customer has a second ticket drawn, it will be discarded and another ticket will be drawn. The 6 contestants will go through the elimination process until only 2 remain as the finalists.

Group B: In the first drawing, 6 tickets will be pulled from the hopper. Each of the 6 contestants will be lined up in the order their name was drawn, from 1 to 6. No customer may have 2 of the 6 chances in the Group B Drawing. If a customer has a second ticket drawn, it will be discarded and another ticket will be drawn. The 6 contestants will go through the elimination process until only 2 remain as the finalists.

Customer can participate in both Group drawings and are eligible to be a contestant in both if their ticket is drawn. No customer can have more than 1 of the 12 spots in either drawing. If a customer is a finalist in Group A, they cannot be a contestant in Group B.

Elimination Process: After all 6 contestant are determined in a group, the first contestant drawn out of the hopper will reach into a bag and pull out a number(1-6). The number they pull out will eliminate the corresponding contestant. (Ex. If the contestant pulls out # 4, the contestant who was drawn with the 4th pull is eliminated.) This will continue with the second contestant and so forth, until only 2 contestants remain. Group A will go first, the Group B. The final 4 contestants (2 from each group) will then reach into the bag and pull out a number. Each will be given a choice of keys, starting with the contestant who pulled the lowest number. Whichever contestant pulls the key that starts the Polaris, wins.

Prize: The grand prize is a 2020 Polaris XP 1000. All tax, title, and other fees are the responsibility of the winner. No Cash Substitute is available. Mueller Roofing and its Subsidiaries reserves the right to operate the vehicle during the contest. This will affect the actual miles and condition when won, and the Polaris will be awarded "as is". Additional runner up prizes will be given to members of Group A & B who did not win the Polaris, including unique prizes for three finalists who did not win the grand prize.

Odds of Winning: The estimated odds of winning the grand prize are 1: 5,000.
